

Testimonial

“Jackie has been an absolute game-changer for our business. Since coming on board as a consultant, she has not only won us two major sole contracts but has also spearheaded our new business efforts, securing several valuable venue partnerships that have significantly expanded our reach. With her deep industry knowledge and years of experience, Jackie has become a trusted mentor to our team—offering strategic guidance, sharp insights, and unwavering support.

She consistently goes above and beyond to support the team and is someone we can always rely on. Jackie brings professionalism, passion, and results to everything she does. We consider her an invaluable member of our team and a driving force behind our continued growth.”
